Daily Market Report

PRECIOUS METALS TRADING

- Gold price is hovering near $5,000 during the early Asian trading session on Monday.
- The precious metal is facing selling pressure due to uncertainty ahead of major central bank policy decisions this week.
- Traders are closely watching developments in the conflict involving Iran, Israel, and the United States.
- The administration of Donald Trump said the Iran war could end within weeks or sooner.
- The Israel Defense Forces stated that its military campaign may continue for at least three more weeks.
- Over the weekend, US forces targeted military sites on Kharg Island, a key Iranian oil export hub.
- Iran warned it could retaliate against oil facilities linked to the United States in the region.
- Rising oil prices caused by the conflict are increasing global inflation concerns.
- Higher inflation expectations are raising the likelihood that the Federal Reserve will delay interest-rate cuts, which is negative for non-yielding assets like Gold.
- This week markets will focus on policy decisions from major central banks including the Federal Reserve, European Central Bank, Bank of England, Bank of Japan, and Reserve Bank of Australia, with the RBA expected to raise rates while others hold steady.
