PRECIOUS METALS TRADING

- Gold price climbs near $5,200 as investors move toward safe-haven assets due to rising Middle East tensions.
- The conflict involving Iran, United States, and Israel has entered its sixth day, increasing geopolitical uncertainty.
- US and Israeli strikes inside Iran and Iranian missile and drone retaliation across the region are escalating the crisis.
- A US submarine reportedly sank an Iranian warship near Sri Lanka, further intensifying military tensions.
- Pete Hegseth described the strike as the first such attack on an enemy since World War II.
- Gold demand increases when the US Dollar weakens, because a weaker dollar makes gold cheaper for foreign investors.
- Reports suggested Iran's intelligence agency contacted the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) to explore possible peace talks, though Iran later denied the claim.
- The US government plans to introduce a temporary 15% global tariff, replacing the previous 10% rate after court rulings affected earlier trade policies under Donald Trump.
- Rising oil and gas prices are increasing inflation concerns, which could delay interest-rate cuts by the Federal Reserve.
- The US 10-year Treasury yield has climbed to 4.11%, reflecting market reactions to war developments, tariff changes, and upcoming economic data.
